1. SAG-UAR Relations - Yemen Developments. At a private meeting with the Crown Prince in Taif August 17 Ambassador Hart found him considerably upset by recent overflights of UAR aircraft in Jizan district (see Military) and by UAR-YAR troop movements in Northwestern Yemen.

He requested an official USG response on where it would stand should conflict break out between the SAG and the UAR.

Ambassador Hart emphasized that the U.S. position had been consistent: it stood ready to help the SAG against any unprovoked external attack. We would however consider Saudi aid to the Yemeni Royalists as provocation.

the U.S. to cut all its aid to the UAR, it would thereby prevent Nasir from adventuring in the Middle East and Africa. (SECRET)
